

National Writing Project @ Rider University

For incoming 3rd
through 8th graders

Kids' Writing Camp
Summer 2017

July 2017
9 a.m.—12 noon

Mon. 10, Tues. 11, Wed. 12, Thur. 13
Mon. 17, Tues. 18, Wed. 19, Thur. 20

Cost: $250 per student

For more information email: parris@nwprider.org

10% discount for children of Rider staff

Do you miss writing class over the summer?

Would you be interested in creating and publishing an original piece of work?

Then, this eight session writing camp is for you! Discover and pursue your passion for writing at our writing camp! Work on writing of your choice, publish it for all to see, and celebrate with other students!

Hosted by the National Writing Project@Rider University, teacher consultants will guide students in small group settings to complete self-driven projects.

Publication could be a book, website or an animated video. The choices are endless. Join us this summer and have fun exploring different genres of writing!

How to Register

2. Mail your check and release forms to:

Attn. Dr. Heather Casey
Rider University
Memorial Hall 102M
2083 Lawrenceville Road

Release forms are available online via Google Forms when you register.

1. Waiver Release Form
2. Video & Photo Release Form

1. Register online here:
<https://goo.gl/forms/xI9tyvI1CzY4dzal1>

Make check payable to:
Rider University