

The National Writing Project@Rider invites you to our...
3rd Annual Literacy Fair

Thinking as Writers and Teachers of Writers

January 12th from 10 am to 12:30 pm (snow date January 26th)

Rider University, Memorial Hall Rooms 110-114

Free to educators and future teachers

Register at NWP@Rider (www.nwprider.org)

As teachers, we are always looking for ways to motivate our students to love reading and writing. Join us for an inspiring talk by Berit Gordon, author of No More Fake Reading, followed by a series of interactive round tables led by expert educators. Come ready to share and learn more about classroom strategies designed to help your students become informed and motivated literacy partners. You will leave with tools for the classroom and ideas to keep you writing, learning and growing!

Topics:

- Supporting Developing Writers Through Conferencing
- Integrating Writing Throughout the Curriculum
- Supporting English Language Learners in the Classroom

Door Prizes: Win a basket of children's books

Professional Development hours awarded
